The Book of Ezekiel, Chapter 25

IEZEKIIHA KE'

Each verse opens with the running Greek, an English translation, and a discourse note (its connective, relation, and role in the argument). Below follows the word-by-word breakdown in six tiers: gloss, case (color), parsing, syntax, semantic force, and a | lexical note.

CASE ■ Nominative ■ Genitive ■ Dative ■ Accusative ■ Vocative ■ Verb (no case) ■ Indeclinable

Discourse notes head each verse: relation · connective · clause-flow. Indentation marks prominence — flush-left = main line of argument; indented = supporting / subordinate material.

Theme

Ammon, Moab, Edom, and Philistia are judged for mocking Judah's fall.

Translation & textual notes

The Greek text of Ezekiel 25 begins the foreign-nation sequence that follows Jerusalem's announced fall. The chapter's four short oracles are tightly organized around hostile responses to Judah's devastation: Ammon rejoices at the profaning of the sanctuary and the exile of the people; Moab collapses the distinction of Israel and Judah into the level of ordinary nations; Edom acts in remembered vengeance against the house of Judah; and the Philistines pursue ancient enmity with gleeful destruction. The rhetoric is concise and judicial, with each nation's characteristic offense matched to a corresponding form of desolation or vengeance. It is therefore not a distraction from Israel's story but an extension of Ezekiel's theology of the Lord's name: the same God who judges his own people also judges surrounding peoples for mocking, exploiting, or violently pursuing them. Each oracle closes with a recognition formula, so that foreign judgment too becomes revelatory.

Discourse structure of the chapter

A · 25:1-7

Ammon rejoices over Judah and is handed to eastern nomads

Because Ammon exults over the profaned sanctuary, the ruined land, and Judah's exile, the Lord gives its territory to the sons of the east and turns Ammonite land into pastoral desolation.

B · 25:8-11

Moab is judged for reducing Judah to an ordinary nation

Moab's offense is theological and political: it treats the house of Judah as no different from all the nations. The Lord opens Moab to invasion and executes vengeance so that its pride is answered.

C · 25:12-14

Edom's revenge is answered by the Lord's revenge

Edom acts out long-nursed hostility against Judah. The Lord stretches out his hand, devastates the land, and makes Israel itself the instrument of divine vengeance.

D · 25:15-17

Philistine glee and destruction provoke great vengeance

The Philistines pursue annihilating revenge with deep delight. The Lord therefore extends his hand against them, cuts off the coastal remnant, and makes his vengeance known in great acts.

1 καὶ ἐγένετο λόγος κυρίου πρὸς με λέγων

And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

On the labels. Parsing gives Tense·Voice·Mood·Person·Number (+ Case·Number·Gender for participles) and lemma. The syntactic-function and semantic-force tiers follow standard intermediate-grammar categories (e.g. Wallace, Greek Grammar Beyond the Basics); both involve interpretive judgment, and the majority reading has been chosen where opinions differ. Lexical notes condense commonly cited data (etymology, sense range, synonym contrasts, NT frequency, OT/LXX echoes) and are no substitute for a lexicon.

On the discourse tier. Discourse structure operates above the word, so it is shown at the clause/verse level (the connective, the relation it signals, and the role of the clause) and summarized in the chapter outline. Relation labels, any proposed chiasm, and the paragraph divisions reflect a common reading of the argument; other discourse analyses segment and label some relations differently.
