The Book of Jeremiah, Chapter 11

ΙΕΡΕΜΙΑΣ ΙΑ΄

Each verse opens with the running Greek, an English translation, and a discourse note (its connective, relation, and role in the argument). Below follows the word-by-word breakdown in six tiers: gloss, case (color), parsing, syntax, semantic force, and a | lexical note.

CASE ■ Nominative ■ Genitive ■ Dative ■ Accusative ■ Vocative ■ Verb (no case) ■ Indeclinable

Discourse notes head each verse: relation · connective · clause-flow. Indentation marks prominence — flush-left = main line of argument; indented = supporting / subordinate material.

Theme

The broken covenant brings judgment on Judah and Jeremiah's persecutors in Anathoth.

Translation & textual notes

Jeremiah 11 is framed as a covenant lawsuit. The opening commission sends Jeremiah through Judah and Jerusalem to rehearse the words of the Mosaic covenant, its exodus setting, and its promise of a land flowing with milk and honey. The middle movement insists that Judah has repeated the refusals of the fathers, multiplied Baal-altars through the land, and now stands under inescapable disaster, so that Jeremiah is forbidden to intercede. The closing movement narrows from national apostasy to personal hostility: Judah, once called a fair olive tree, is marked for burning, and the prophet learns of the lethal scheme of the men of Anathoth. The unit therefore binds covenant infidelity, cultic corruption, and prophetic suffering into one judicial declaration.

Discourse structure of the chapter

A · 11:1-6	Jeremiah is sent to proclaim the covenant publicly The prophet is told to announce again the covenant made at the exodus, together with its curse, obedience-demand, and sworn promise.
B · 11:8-17	Judah repeats ancestral rebellion and receives covenant judgment The people refuse to obey, return to the sins of their fathers, multiply idols throughout Judah, and are told that neither idols nor intercession will rescue them.
C · 11:18-20	Jeremiah learns of the hidden plot against his life The prophet describes himself as an innocent sacrificial lamb and appeals to the Lord who tests hearts for righteous vindication.
D · 11:21-23	The men of Anathoth are sentenced for silencing the prophet Those who threaten Jeremiah for prophesying in the Lord's name are marked for sword, famine, and a visitation that leaves no remnant.

On the labels. Parsing gives Tense·Voice·Mood·Person·Number (+ Case·Number·Gender for participles) and lemma. The syntactic-function and semantic-force tiers follow standard intermediate-grammar categories (e.g. Wallace, Greek Grammar Beyond the Basics); both involve interpretive judgment, and the majority reading has been chosen where opinions differ. Lexical notes condense commonly cited data (etymology, sense range, synonym contrasts, NT frequency, OT/LXX echoes) and are no substitute for a lexicon.

On the discourse tier. Discourse structure operates above the word, so it is shown at the clause/verse level (the connective, the relation it signals, and the role of the clause) and summarized in the chapter outline. Relation labels, any proposed chiasm, and the paragraph divisions reflect a common reading of the argument; other discourse analyses segment and label some relations differently.
